Approximately half of the sophomore class will be scheduled for each testing date. Please note, we cannot accept requests for testing date preferences. You will be notified of the date you are assigned and your room assignment on or before September 27, 2024.

Additionally, the school is providing you with a PSAT prep software to support your preparation. PrepScholar provides self-paced adaptive test prep focused on more than 100 skill lessons and 7,100+ practice questions with explanations. You should have received to your @nycstudents.net account, an email on Tuesday, September 10, from PrepScholar to your @nycstudents.net account with directions on how to login to the platform.

If you have questions, students may stop in room 209 and speak to Ms. Fanelli or families may email Ms. Ingram at ringram3@schools.nyc.gov, and we will follow up accordingly.

Any sophomore who chooses not to sit for the in-school PSAT/NMSQT will follow the abbreviated school day schedule that all non-test takers will follow on the October 1 or October 2, test dates. Period attendance will be taken during the abbreviated school day schedule.
