New: National History Academy

“Are you interested in studying defining moments in our history while relating those moments to the important issues we face as a nation today? This summer Next Generation Politics is partnering with the National History Academy (NHA) to inspire students to understand the foundations of American democracy and the responsibilities of citizenship through experiential learning. Using the Case Method Project curriculum developed by Professor David Moss at Harvard Business School, participants will closely examine cases covering different aspects of American democracy. Each case includes a decision point followed by relevant background information that the original decision maker would have had at that time. During the final discussion, participants take on the role of decision-makers to decide what they themselves would have done in each case.”

Deadline Approaching: Virtual Summer Leadership Institute

“This is a six-week program that consists of a series of weekly Saturday workshops pertaining to issues around Asian-American identity, history, politics, and more. Participants discuss the intersections of their identities, including but not limited to race, class, gender, nationality, and language. Participants will walk out with lasting friendships, a rich understanding of Asian American history and contemporary issues, and the tools and confidence to become involved and creative leaders in their community. These past few years have been particularly difficult for the Asian American community, so we hope to better support Asian American students by guiding them through conversations on topics such as the model minority myth, Western imperialism, anti-Blackness, and activism.”

Location: Remote/virtual with some street reporting, possible meetings

Duties: Intern would report for niche newsletters trying to grow their audience.

Fact-checking, finding examples or data, smart aggregation, handling social media accounts, brainstorming campaigns to both market to and engage users.

Our products are:

Epicenter-NYC - A weekly newsletter for New Yorkers to get through the pandemic and build a tighter community in the process. We also are producing livestreams and have a podcast in the works. We are content sharing with the Haitian Times and Documented NY. Our vaccine efforts have been featured on WNYC, Vice, the NY Post.

The Unmuted -- A weekly newsletter to help families with pandemic-era learning. We translate the mayor's pressers, showcase best workstations for kids crammed around one table, and do Q/A's on navigating this moment. We would love students to write for us.

The Escape Home -- A weekly newsletter focused on the second-home market and people making "staycation" homes. Lists of products, data and beautiful pics of homes and lakefronts and beachfronts. We are content sharing with Marketwatch. Great chance for professional clips.

Eligible: All students

Dates: June - August

Location: Mostly virtual

Application Deadline: Rolling Basis – Limited Number of Spots

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students
