For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

The CUNY College Now program offers free college-level courses in a variety of fields, at many CUNY campuses (and sometimes on a virtual/hybrid basis as well). There are fall, spring, and summer sessions. Current 11th and 12th graders – and, with some campuses, 10th graders – are eligible to register for these classes. The spring term offerings & application at City College are now available – check the ACADEMICS section to learn more.

In the LEADERSHIP/COLLEGE PREP category, there is a new free Sat Prep program being offered by the Brooklyn College TRiO program. And that section also includes some opportunities in the field of Community Health, such as the Healthy Minds, Healthy Kids and the Teen Health Advisory Committee – both have fast-approaching deadlines!

Updated: Cultured Kids Cuisine Internship

“Cultured Kids Cuisine is an international non-profit organization striving to foster cultural awareness through food. Our organization is run by 100+ women and non-binary high school and college students from all over the world. We offer a variety of free services to children, such as our virtual cooking workshops, food anthropology course, educational podcast, food blog, eCookbook, and much more. We are currently recruiting high school and college students for our sixth cohort. While no previous experience is necessary, all we ask is that applicants are passionate about building a future of love and tolerance through food. The internship is fully-funded and students will be paired with a mentor and have the opportunity to attend weekly workshops led by successful women founders and entrepreneurs, growing their network and skillset in the process. Furthermore, this program pushes students to think creatively about solving real-world problems, instills in them the initiative to be proactive in their communities, and empowers them to see their ability to do something bigger.”

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
