For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

The Stuyvesant Alumni Association has extended the deadline for their outstanding Mentoring Program to tomorrow, November 24th. This is an excellent opportunity for students to occasionally meet in small groups with successful alumni to learn about career pathways, college admissions, resume & interview skills, and more.

More information can be found in the LEADERSHIP section - interested students should check the link below to register or learn more:

<https://www.stuyalumni.org/mentorstudents/>

Also in that section, there's a new offering from Columbia University; its Youth Voices Lead program invites students to apply for their community activism spring hybrid program. And the Bank of America's Student Leaders Paid Summer Internship program is now accepting applications from to current juniors & seniors

In this week's STEM section, there are several medical-related options with fast-approaching deadlines. The Healthcare Essentials Career Program introduces 10th, 11th, and 12th graders to career paths and interview, resume, communications, and other business-related skills (November 27th deadline). The American College of Cardiology's Young Scholars program pairs current 11th & 12th graders with practicing physician researchers beginning next April – the application deadline is December 1st. And (in the BUSINESS category) the NYC Exploring organization welcomes all students to their free weekly or biweekly afterschool sessions with several local hospitals.

Also in the BUSINESS category, NYC Exploring has new afterschool offerings with M&T Bank and Neuman's Kitchen. The Tisch School of the Arts' Future Music Moguls program for 9th, 10th, and 11th graders introduces participants to the Music Business, with two upcoming weekends of workshops & programming (16 hours total – the application deadline is November 29th). The Miss CEO virtual program for female students and the Harvard Student Agencies' upcoming (end-of-November) seminars are other excellent business-focused options.

Events of Interest to Students:

New: Entry Level Blues: The Highs and Lows of Starting Your Writing and Publishing Career

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform

Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
