For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

In almost every section/category below, excellent programs have application deadlines approaching in the next week or two – students still seeking summer options should click on a few relevant links and apply!!

Some highlights for this week:

---In the ACADEMICS section, there are a number of Fall Term (along with several summer term!) free College Now college-level classes in a variety of fields still available for juniors and, with some programs, for sophomores to take. There's also a new fall term Columbia University weekend-course series (fairly expensive!), and a group of summer pre-college options (with tuition fees) that have deadlines next week.

--In the BUSINESS/JOBS category, note that there are a number of paid options for students, for the summer and for the fall term as well, including the NYS Public Interest Research Group, the 92 Street Y, the Gilder-Lehman Institute, and several commercial companies.

--In the LEADERSHIP/GOVERNMENT category, note that the Parents' and Alumni Associations' first session of their new virtual college-readiness prep program - exclusively for Stuy students – is scheduled for June 12th!

--In the THEATER/ARTS category, Arts Connection offers a paid ($1,200) summer program for current 11th and 12th graders – the deadline is June 18th! The 92 Street Y's Teen Producers internship is a paid once a week fall term career exploration program for current sophomores interested in the arts and/or arts careers. And Girls Write Now's Writing Collaboratory is now accepting applications for their 2023 -2024 program.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community! And, as always, students and parents should feel free to contact Harvey Blumm for advice & assistance.

Deadline Approaching: University of Pittsburgh Pharmacy Innovation Experience and Research (PIER) Program

“We aim to expose our students to the wide range of opportunities that come with a PharmD (Doctorate in Pharmacy) Degree. In doing so, we bring in expert faculty members from Pitt Pharmacy to talk about their journeys throughout the field. We also emphasize the role of a pharmacist in research and the innovative areas one can pursue through the many doors opened with a PharmD. There will be weekly webinars and activities that will engage the students and encourage teamwork. Students will work through patient cases outside the webinar sessions and receive help and guidance from current Pitt Pharmacy students, who will serve as their mentors. Throughout our program, we also foster professional development by implementing resume workshops and tips on a successful interview.”

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
