Please note that in this "Short" version of the Student Opportunity Bulletin, only the New and Deadline Approaching opportunities in each category are included. For the list of all the opportunities in each category, you may click & open the "Long" version of the Student Opportunity document you received.

CATEGORY TABLE OF CONTENTS:

(Download this entire PDF document in order to use the following links to jump to your area(s) of interest)

All high school students 14 and older can (and should) apply for the NYC Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP). This program provides paid summer jobs to students – all are eligible to apply. In case no other opportunities work out, a possible SYEP job can provide a productive summer. Please check the application information in the ʹBusiness & Jobs section below.

This week's edition includes several other excellent and interesting new events & opportunities – many have upcoming April deadlines- so please explore them ASAP.

For example:

--In the ACADEMICS section, free summer college courses are available to juniors &, in some cases, sophomores via the CUNY College Now program – the first deadline (for Baruch College classes) is Friday, April 16!

-There are several excellent new opportunities in the Government/Leadership section for all students with an interest in this field.

-Students seeking interesting summer volunteer activities may register to receive an upcoming newsletter full of options – check the Community Service section to learn more.

-For Engineering/STEM summer programs, there are excellent options available at NYU Tandon, Manhattan College, and the University of Michigan, among others.

Female students interested in Medicine/Life Sciences should register for the free online Perry Initiatives in May ASAP – spaces fill up very fast!

-In the Writing section. aspiring writers can apply to several Journalism & Writing programs at NYU, the University of Vermont, and the Writing Room program.

-And in the Museums/Art section, summer programs at the Metropolitan Museum of Art (April 15 deadline!), the Whitney Museum, and the New York Historical Society are all excellent opportunities.

 Please start exploring your options and begin applying to whichever fit your interests & talents – the students who end up with the best options are usually those who focus early – do not procrastinate!! All students and parents are always welcome to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu for advice & assistance.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business & Jobs, Community Service, and so on.
 New items always will be listed first in every category, followed by those with approaching deadlines (Deadline Approaching).

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

ONE Lab Summer Studio of Environmentally-Focused Design

"ONE Lab is a summer enrichment program that lets high school students explore the nexus between environmental concerns and creative / design practices, including sustainable fashion, architecture, and bio design. ONE Lab is a project of Terreform ONE, a non-profit think-and-do-tank dedicated to fighting environmental degradation through innovative creative technology.

Students may apply to two-week online courses (4 sessions, June - August) in:

- Sustainable Fashion & Materials
- Architecture & the Environment
- Bio Design & Engineering

ONE Lab Summer Studio is online for 2021, allowing us to broaden the scope in lecturers, tours and projects beyond our NYC base. We also make sure students have off-screen time: they do supervised work with our Studio in a Box at their home workspace as well as outside project-related work. Our hours allow students from all across the continental US, Canada & Latin America to participate.

This program is creatively and intellectually stimulating, giving teens the chance to be proactive on climate concerns, introducing them to like-minded peers along with world-renowned design and climate experts, and jumpstarting their road to college and career exploration. They leave with a student evaluation and design portfolio, all great material for college applications.

Visit onelab.org for details on every aspect of the program

- Sign up for one-on-one appointments with our admissions team
- Contact info@onelab.org with any further questions

ONE Lab, a rigorous online design studio:

- Illustrates the environmental possibilities of global landscapes and habitats

- Welcomes the next generation of innovators in architecture, bio design, and sustainable fashion

New: Journalism Summer Camp

"Are you a high school student interested in expanding your writing, reporting and journalism skills?

The Detroit Writing Room's 2021 Summer Journalism Camp is for you!

This two-week camp is taught by Detroit Writing Room and New York Writing Room coaches. The coaches are all award-winning journalists who have worked at publications from The New York Times and Wall Street Journal to The Detroit News and Detroit Free Press.

Each day, students will learn a different topic from a Writing Room coach, including news reporting, photography, column writing, food writing, and more. Participants will also gain mentors who can guide them to future internship and job opportunities.

Over the two weeks, students will report and write their own story on a topic of their choice. They will also be paired with an Editing Coach to receive feedback and editing. On the last day, students will share their stories with the group. Their stories will be published on The Detroit Writing Room's website and in the second edition of Perspectives Magazine, a print publication produced by students in our journalism and photography camps. Students who complete the program will receive a certificate. They will also be to welcome participate in select Detroit Writing Room workshops and events throughout the year at no cost."

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students
