11. OPPORTUNITY LISTS AND RESOURCES

12. SCHOLARSHIPS

With only a few weeks left in the school year, there are still a good number of summer options available for our students (and some for the upcoming fall term as well).

Some highlights from this week's edition:

--In the ACADEMICS section, the CUNY City Tech College Now fall term program (in Brooklyn - for current 10th and 11th graders) has a virtual Open House scheduled for Tuesday, June 7th. And there are new listings for Hunter and Lehman College fall term free College Now classes. The Gilder-Lehrman Institute offers free summer virtual History and Government courses, including some on military history. And SUNY Stony Brook has a summer Oceanography program for students 16 and older in Southampton, Long Island.

--In the BUSINESS/JOBS section, students may apply for ‘Ball Person’ paid jobs for the U.S. Open Tennis Tournament in September – the application deadline is Sunday, June 5th. And there are several new listings for paid summer camp jobs.

--In the LEADERSHIP/GOVERNMENT category, there are fast-approaching deadlines for some excellent programs: June 3rd (priority deadline) for the St. Francis College College Prep/Readiness Summer Institute, June 4th for the APEX Youth Conference, and June 6th for the YVote Summer Civics program. The FXB Climate Advocates Program is a new virtual opportunity for students to learn and develop their advocacy skills on environmental issues.

--There are several interesting new opportunities (with approaching deadlines) in the THEATER-WRITING-MUSIC section, including a Grammy Museum program, the Sound Thinking Music Program, and several Journalism-focused options.

--And in the STEM category, the Columbia Medical Center Irving Cancer Center offers a free virtual summer program on cancer research, along with a component focused on college admissions support.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business & Jobs, Community Service, and so on.

New items always will be listed first in every category, followed by those with approaching deadlines (Deadline Approaching).

As always, students and parents should feel free to contact Harvey Blumm for advice & assistance at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

High School Terminal

“Terminal is a games-based AI challenge, where players code strategies to automate gameplay. Taking place between June 20 - 27, the competition will have a flexible structure so that participants will be able to work anytime during the week to accommodate their schedule.

We have hosted 20+ Terminal events for 5,000+ students across the top universities such as Harvard, MIT, Stanford, Oxford, and Cambridge, and we’re finally bringing Terminal to high school students! You can check out this clip of Terminal to learn more about the competition.

Participating students will be eligible for exclusive recruiting opportunities with Citadel along with prizes including Apple iPads, AirPod Pros, and Sonos Bluetooth Speakers! The event is completely free to attend and open to all high school students. This is a great opportunity for students to exhibit their coding skills in a competitive, team-based setting. All Stuyvesant High School students are welcome to register, even entry-level students with little experience with coding just to have fun!”

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students
