For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

In this week's ACADEMICS section, there are two new groups of spring & summer educational options. Check the list of private university 'pre-college' classes for high school students, including Cornell, Johns Hopkins (with a Saturday, 12/17 afternoon information session), Washington University, and more. There is also a new list of free 'STEP' STEM spring term programs offered at various CUNY campuses around the city –these are focused on economically-disadvantaged students & those from under-represented groups. And the New York Math Circle offers low-cost, high-quality mathematics programs (virtual & in-person); courses fill up quickly!

There are upcoming end-of-year deadlines for a number of excellent free programs in the LEADERSHIP section; some include SAT Prep and other college-admissions support.

For students interested in medical research programs, the HOPP summer program from Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center is open to all grade levels. Current seniors (18 & older by May, with minimum GPA criteria) can apply for NYU Langone Hospital’s Health Career Opportunity Program (application deadline: December 21st). And, for female-identifying students, the next Perry Initiative virtual outreach event (focused on innovations in orthopedic medicine) is scheduled for January 17th – early registration is advised.

And all students can apply to the free CS4ALL Pathfinders Computer Science program. This six-month program has an upcoming December 23rd application deadline!

New: National Labor Relations Board Student Ambassador Program

“The National Labor Relations Board is a federal agency that enforces the National Labor Relations Act. Through the NLRB’s Student Ambassador Program, students will get to engage with NLRB attorneys and investigators, and will learn about the rights of workers and the responsibilities of employers and unions. Students will complete a learning phase and then students will get the opportunity to create a public facing project that the NLRB will help shape and promote. Each student will be assigned an attorney or investigator as a mentor for the public facing project.”

Examples of a public facing project can be an article in a student or local newspaper or a presentation with an NLRB representative in a class or conference. This Program is a wonderful opportunity for students to develop familiarity with the law, law enforcement, and federal agencies. Equally as important, students will get the chance to create a project centered on what they have learned. They will develop their project skills, use their creativity, and step forward as leaders. At the end of the Program, they will receive a Certificate of Accomplishment.”

Eligible: Current sophomores, juniors, and seniors

Dates:

Learning Phase: July 17 to August 18, 2023. Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays, 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. (hours may be adjusted to accommodate all participants)

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
