This weekly bulletin will inform students, parents, and staff in a timely manner about internships, jobs, academic programs, leadership, community service initiatives, and other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business & Jobs, Community Service, and so on.

New items always will be listed first in every category, followed by those with approaching deadlines (Deadline Approaching).

The continuing coronavirus situation has led to almost all opportunities for high school students shifting over to remote formats for the fall term. Students should consider applying to any that match their interests and talents. Some program deadlines are fast approaching – please do not miss them!

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

New:* 2020-2021 Modeling the Future Challenge

“The Modeling the Future Challenge is a real-world competition for high school students combining math-modeling, data-analysis, and risk-management into one exciting challenge. To compete, students conduct their own research project modeling real-world data to analyze risks and make recommendations to companies, industry groups, governments, or organizations.” Winners will receive a $60,000 reward.

Details: “To start the challenge, students must complete a Scenario in which they are given a real-world dataset and must answer approximately 30 fundamental questions regarding statistics and mathematical modeling to make sure they have developed the skills needed to complete their own actuarial research project. For all teams passing through the scenario phase, they will define and conduct a project of their own choosing - following the Actuarial Process as a guide - and will complete a research report detailing their methodology, analysis, and recommendations. All teams in accepted into the Project Phase of the program will be connected with an actuary mentor to help guide the students through the Actuarial Process and complete their research report.”

Students can be from formal, informal, or home-school groups.

Eligible: All juniors and seniors

Dates: November 16 (Registration closes)

New: Museum of Mathematics Programs & Resources:

“Due to the current health situation, the Museum is temporarily closed. Please enjoy the following programs and activities, all available online. Additionally, many of MoMath’s programs are being offered for free or at a reduced rate for those in need — please visit individual event pages for more information.

“Delve into the world of the unexpected with Alternative Perspective — the cutting-edge interactive art show now open (virtually) at MoMath — and get ready to experience wonder and delight as stunning mathematical sculptures provide a surprising lesson in perception and reality. Or challenge your sense of logic and reason at a “best-of” evening with puzzle master Peter Winkler, who highlights some of the most interesting — and the most fiendish — puzzles from the worldwide hit, Mind-Benders for the Quarantined! Want to meet a diverse group of mathematicians and hear their compelling stories? Join us for The Limit Does Not Exist, Meet a Mathematician, and Bending the Arc. Finally, learn about how math might help us deal with the pandemic, address issues of air quality, and create ever more sophisticated artificial intelligence systems.”

Mo Math at a Glance
Ongoing	Mind-Benders for the Quarantined!, weekly mathematical puzzles from MoMath's puzzle master, Dr. Peter Winkler MoMath Online: Student Sessions, educator-led sessions for pre-K to 12 students exploring math from home

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students
