Many spring term and summer applications are now open. It's an excellent idea for students to apply to several programs that match their interests & talents and, after being accepted, to just select & participate whichever option they prefer (after informing any other programs that accepted them that they are declining their acceptances).

Here are some highlights for this week:

---ACADEMICS: Spring term free CUNY College Now courses (virtual & in-person) in a wide variety of fields are now available at numerous campuses throughout the city. Current 11th & 12th graders (& for Hunter, 10th graders) may apply. City College (12/7) and Hunter College (12/10) deadlines are next week! And CCNY's STEM Institute, with diverse STEM classes (such as Game Design & Financial Management), welcomes all students – their application deadline is December 15.

---In the BUSINESS section, the Stevens Institute of Technology offers current juniors a free summer business research program that explores major business fields, and provides a $500 stipend to students who complete the program.

---In the COMMUNITY SERVICE category, BreakThrough New York welcomes Stuy volunteers to help elementary school students in a variety of locations – the application deadline is Sunday, December 5. And P.S. 184 (Shuang Wen School) in downtown Manhattan welcomes tutoring interns as well – they will have a mid-December orientation for interested applicants.

---In the LEADERSHIP category, Camp Rising Sun, a free leadership summer camp (with both in-person & virtual options) has several upcoming information sessions starting Saturday, December 4th – this is a great opportunity to meet other motivated students from around the world! And the Amigos Travel Program provides both international & domestic opportunities to help Spanish-speaking communities – their deadline to apply for financial aid is Monday, December 6th!

---And in the PERFORMING ARTS section, this weekend brings the application deadline for the Spinning Bubbles virtual dance program (which provides free leotards, dance shoes, & more). And Ontrac offers a free spring program on Careers in Arts fields & help with college readiness.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business & Jobs, Community Service, and so on.

New items always will be listed first in every category, followed by those with approaching deadlines (Deadline Approaching).

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students
