Stuyvesant Student Opportunity Bulletin #37S

June 7, 2024

Please note that in this "Short" version of the Student Opportunity Bulletin, only the New and Deadline Approaching opportunities in each category are included.

For the list of all the opportunities in each category, you may click & open the "Long" version of the Student Opportunity document you received.

CATEGORY TABLE OF CONTENTS:

(Download this entire PDF document in order to use the following links to jump to your area(s) of interest)

This weekly bulletin informs students, parents, and staff about internships, academic programs, jobs, community service options, and leadership initiatives, along with other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator

Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

Students still seeking summer opportunities should select and apply ASAP to any of the many opportunities in the various categories listed below (some free or low-cost) – community service options, for example, can be part-time or full-time, tutoring/helping younger students, working in parks, volunteering with local government officials, and more. At this point students can't be too picky, and should consider any options that they might find interesting or enjoyable. Feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu for assistance & suggestions.

And a good number of programs for the fall term are now posting applications, such as free CUNY College Now classes from Hunter & City Colleges (more to follow in the coming weeks), the Student Historian Internship Program, the virtual NY Academy of Science's Junior Academy STEM Mentorship program, the volunteer Brooklyn Techies option from the Brooklyn Public Library, and more. Some deadlines are due in the next few weeks, so check them out!

Some interesting programs to consider are highlighted below:

ACADEMICS: In addition to some still-available summer free CUNY College Now courses, more campuses are posting their fall term schedules online- City College and Hunter College options are included in this section. The New York Historical Society's Student Historian Internship Program (SHIP) welcomes current 9th, 10th, and 11th graders to apply for their September – June in-person program.

COLLEGE PREP: The Apex for Youth College Access Program provides significant college admissions, internship, and other support to rising Asian-American or immigrant juniors with lower family incomes. And the virtual MATRICULATE program is for rising seniors – it provides one on one mentors and other support.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: The Sparks Within Reach program welcomes all Stuy volunteers to assist housing-insecure youth with tutoring & general support. NYC Youth Food Advocates invites current students to develop projects to help fight hunger, with a focus on school food programs; it involves a one-week summer training and occasional school-year activities..

GOVERNMENT/LEADERSHIP: Pen America offers a one-week summer workshop on protecting free expression around the world, followed by 2024-2025 action projects.

STEM: The American College of Cardiology's Young Scholars Program now welcomes students from all grades to apply - itincludes a full year of mostly virtual presentations & activities on new medical developments. The New York Academy of Science's Junior Academy is a virtual program connecting high school students from around the world to work with scientific mentors on various projects aimed at making a better world. And Drexel University in Philadelphia offers a low-cost, in-person Digital Development Camp for current 9th, 10th, and 11th graders with an interest in Computer Science.

WRITING: The CLARIFY Journalism program provides hands-on experience in reporting about local issues & events – it runs from October – December.

Events of Interest to Students:

New: Event Approaching: Girls Write Now One Letter 4 All Workshop Series

"Join us at the series kickoff to provide loving messages to people dealing with loneliness & isolation, in an inspiring afternoon of creative social activism at the home of Girls Write Now. Working Papers: Some summer jobs, internships, and programs do require students 14-17 years old to obtain working papers (official name: employment certificates). The necessary application form may be obtained from Mr. Myles Sebastien (who can explain the procedure and answer any questions) in the Stuyvesant Guidance Office (Room 236) between 8:00am – 3:30pm. Check the BUSINESS category for a link with more information.

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
