12. SCHOLARSHIPS

The next month or two is prime time for summer programs, internships, and courses to post their applications online. All have scheduled deadlines - whatever one's area of interest or preferred type of activity, please start scanning the categories below and start applying!

As always, students and parents should feel free to contact Harvey Blumm for advice & assistance at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Here are some highlights for this week:

---In the ACADEMICS section, students thinking of taking a college level class in spring or summer can check out tomorrow's (Saturday @ 1:00pm) online Pre-College Program Fair (repeated on 2/26). Many major colleges & universities will participate. And please note that the Yale Summer Program in Astrophysics is not free to participants- the cost is $5,500 (financial aid may be available for eligible students).

---In the PARKS section, all students can find summer opportunities to work at local zoos and the Aquarium via the NYC Wildlife Conservation Society's Job/Internship/Volunteering Fair on February 5th. Paid and unpaid positions will be available.

---In the STEM section, there are numerous new opportunities to peruse. The MIT Lincoln Lab offers two free short-term summer programs (in cryptography & radar). The U.S. Army sponsors their High School Apprenticeship Program for current 10th & 11th graders. Students get to work on real research projects at NYU, CUNY, and other local universities – and they receive a paid stipend! All female 9th graders can apply to the free, six-week summer Goals for Girls STEM Program – there is an Information Session scheduled for February 5th. And all students are invited to attend the ‘Stem in Our World’ online event on February 12th to learn how STEM innovations influence our lives in medicine & other areas.

---And in the SCHOLARSHIPS section, please note that several options have application deadlines coming up next week!

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business & Jobs, Community Service, and so on.

New items always will be listed first in every category, followed by those with approaching deadlines (Deadline Approaching).

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

National Labor Relations Board Student Ambassador Program

“The National Labor Relations Board is a federal agency that enforces the National Labor Relations Act. Through the NLRB’s Student Ambassador Program, students will get to engage with NLRB attorneys and investigators, and will learn about the rights of workers and the responsibilities of employers and unions. Students will complete a learning phase and then students will get the opportunity to create a public facing project that the NLRB will help shape and promote. Each student will be assigned an attorney or investigator as a mentor for the public facing project.

Examples of a public facing project can be an article in a student or local newspaper or a presentation with an NLRB representative in a class or conference. This Program is a wonderful opportunity for students to develop familiarity with the law, law enforcement, and federal agencies. Equally as important, students will get the chance to create a project centered on what they have learned. They will develop their project skills, use their creativity, and step forward as leaders. At the end of the Program, they will receive a Certificate of Accomplishment.”

Eligible: Current sophomores, juniors, and seniors

Dates:

Learning Phase: July 18 to July 27, 2022. Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays, 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. (hours may be adjusted to accommodate all participants)

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students
