This weekly bulletin informs students, parents, and staff about internships, academic programs, jobs, community service options, and leadership initiatives, along with other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.

A good number of programs have upcoming February deadlines - please do not miss them!

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

There are many excellent opportunities in this issue - including several highlighted below.

EVENTS: The Manhattan District Attorney's office's free resume in-person workshop is on February 23rd; all students may apply; this is especially relevant for those with an interest in law. Teen Life magazine's free virtual Summer Programs Fair is on February 15th – open to all.

BUSINESS/JOBS: Seniors with an interest in business/finance (& a minimum 3.0 GPA) may apply for the paid summer Urban Leaders Fellows program – the application deadline is 2/28.

All female-identifying & non-binary students are eligible for the spring term's five-session (Tuesdays after school, beginning in late February) Rock the Street Wall Street program, which brings female investment professionals to Stuyvesant to teach & mentor participants in personal finance & business topics.

And the New York Institute of Technology's free Business Boot Camp meets once a month (virtual & in-person options) to introduce students from all grades to the world of business – participants may attend any or all of the spring sessions.

COLLEGE PREP: The First Tech Fund college admissions support program helps lower-income 10th and 11th graders with weekly hybrid meetings throughout the 2024-2025 school year – there is an online Information Session on February 13th.

PARKS: Brooklyn Bridge Parks' TIDES program runs from April – June, and allows students from all grades to engage in environmental projects in a beautiful setting – the application deadline is February 29th.

STEM: The in-person Perry Initiative for female & non-binary sophomores, juniors, and seniors offers an in-person one-day medical program at NYU Langone Hospital in Manhattan in May; spots are limited & the deadline to apply is April 4th.

The Columbia Science Honors Saturday program for the 2024-2025 school year is now accepting applications from current 9th, 10th, and 11th graders.

The Girls Who Code summer programs applications for all students are now online – the early application deadline is February 14th.

Events of Interest to Students:

New: Event Approaching: Zuckerman Institute Brain Insight Lecture

“In this event, three experts studying early life development will bring together perspectives from psychology, neuroscience, and pediatrics to discuss how children grow up in a dynamic world. Dani Dumitriu, Assistant Professor of Pediatrics (in Psychiatry) at Columbia University Irving Medical Center, will open our event by discussing her research examining the role of social and emotional connection on the developmental origins of resilience. Dima Amso, Professor of Psychology at Columbia University, will then present her research on nurture in early life and its importance for developing fundamental cognitive processes, like learning and memory.

Following the two talks, Katie Insel, PhD, Postdoctoral Research Fellow, will moderate a discussion and Q&A with the speakers.”

New: Women in Computing at Cornell Programming Workshop

“The 2024 Women in Computing at Cornell (WiCC) High School Programming Contest Workshop will be held on Sunday, March 3rd at 12:00 pm in-person on the NYC Cornell Tech campus. The total time, including the introduction and instructions, will be approximately 4 hours.

This year, Cornell and Cornell Tech will partner with Women in Computing at Cornell (WiCC) to host a hands-on programming contest workshop to build and practice skills for students with less experience competing. Our goal is to prepare you for our April contest. This workshop is open to all, but focused on women and students from groups underrepresented in computer science to create a diverse, inclusive and egalitarian competition.

The workshop will include problems from prior contests ranging from “very easy” to “medium-hard”. The participants will be grouped into teams of three that range in levels of programming experience. Only limited programming experience is required. You should be able to write some code in C++, Java (not JavaScript), or Python. You can see sample questions from previous years here.

Deadline Approaching:

Stanford University Summer Research Internships for High Schoolers

“The Stanford Compression Forum is offering its annual summer internship program for the summer of 2024. We are looking for passionate high school students interested in pursuing fun research projects over the summer. Students will be grouped to multifaceted projects that match their existing interests and strengths, while exposing them to new areas. Themes will span and combine the science of information and communication, engineering, the arts, linguistics, psychology, biology, neuroscience, computer science, technology, philosophy, and design, among other areas.”

Eligible: All juniors and seniors

Dates: June 17 – August 9

Location: Virtual

Application Deadline: February 23

Cost: Free

NYU Tandon School of Engineering Summer Pre-College Programs

NYU Tandon offers a wide variety of STEM-focused programs for high school students. The competitive free programs for local students provide unique opportunities for in-depth STEM studies and range from Applied Research Innovations in Science and Engineering (ARISE), Computer Science for Cyber Security (CS4CS), Innovation, Entrepreneurship and the Science of Smart Cities (ieSoSc). The fee-based programs are Design, Invent & Innovate (DII), Immersive Summer Interacting with Technology and Engineering (I-SITE), Machine Learning (ML), Computer Engineering for Good (CE4G), Programs in Digital Design and Media (UX and XR), and Automation, Robotics, Coding (SPARC).

Eligible: All students

Dates: Various

Location: MetroTech Center in Brooklyn

Application Deadline: March 1 (ARISE), April 10 (CS4CS), April 14 (ieSoSc), April 20 (ML), May 2 (SPARC), May 10 (DII, CE4G, I-SITE, and UX and XR)

Costs: Various; Some free programs

Engineering Summer Academy at Penn

“The Engineering Summer Academy at Penn (ESAP) welcomes highly motivated and talented students to explore Engineering at the college level. The Academy’s intensive, three-week programs combine sophisticated theory with hands-on practical experience in cutting-edge technologies. Work with leading faculty while earning college credit, live on Penn’s historic campus, and connect with new friends from around the world. Courses are offered in Artificial Intelligence, Biotechnology, Complex Networks, Computer Graphics, Computer Science, Nanotechnology, and Robotics.”

Eligible: Rising sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are 15 (by program’s start date)

Dates: July 7 - July 27

Location: University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia

Application Deadline: March 1 (Priority Deadline), April 5 (General Deadline)

Cost: $8,500; financial aid available

The Yale Summer Program in Astrophysics (YSPA)

“YSPA is a research program in which students spend two weeks virtually learning skills in astronomy and programming. Then, they are invited to the Yale campus for four weeks to develop a complex astrophysics modeling project. Students gain skills in physics, math, astronomy, programming, data visualization, and data science.

Members of underrepresented groups in STEM are encouraged to apply

Eligible: Current juniors

Dates: June 24 – July 5 (online) & July 7 – August 4 (residential)

Location: Hybrid (two weeks virtual & four weeks residential on the Yale campus)

Cost: TBD (limited need-based financial aid available)

MIT Lincoln Laboratory (LL) Beaver Works Summer Institute Spring Class and Summer Program

“This is a dual program; – spring term self-paced online classes (open to all juniors, and some 9th and 10th graders may be accepted as well), followed by an in-person or virtual summer program at MIT, which is selective. The four-week program teaches students programming & engineering skills through project-based, workshop-style courses. Students must complete self-paced online courses over the spring semester if they wish to be considered for the summer program. (Students can still apply for the online courses after they are released on February 1st, but should apply as soon as possible.)”

Eligible: Preference to current juniors, but all students may apply

Dates: February 1 - June 16 (Spring Online Courses) & July 8 – August 4 (Summer Program)

Location: Spring Courses are virtual; the summer program is Virtual/and/or /In-Person at MIT

Cost: Free for those with family incomes under $150,000; otherwise -$1,750

Columbia University: Engineering the Next Generation (ENG) Program

“For six weeks, students work with Columbia Engineering researchers and participate in programming to develop their academic and professional skills. Students gain practical research experience, collaborate with research faculty, staff, and students, practice new skills, and take part in multi-level mentorship.

Program components include experience in working on genuine engineering research projects, research skills and college prep workshops, science communications workshops, and additional supplemental seminars and opportunities. Students are also provided with a stipend to support them over the summer. If the student lives in Harlem, they can opt to spend their internship with the CS3 My Streetscape Summer Research Institute.”

Eligible: Current juniors and seniors

New: Event Approaching: Zuckerman Institute Brain Insight Lecture

“In this event, three experts studying early life development will bring together perspectives from psychology, neuroscience, and pediatrics to discuss how children grow up in a dynamic world. Dani Dumitriu, Assistant Professor of Pediatrics (in Psychiatry) at Columbia University Irving Medical Center, will open our event by discussing her research examining the role of social and emotional connection on the developmental origins of resilience. Dima Amso, Professor of Psychology at Columbia University, will then present her research on nurture in early life and its importance for developing fundamental cognitive processes, like learning and memory.

Following the two talks, Katie Insel, PhD, Postdoctoral Research Fellow, will moderate a discussion and Q&A with the speakers.”

Eligible: All students

Event Approaching: NYC Exploring Careers Program – Lenox Health Sessions

“Students interested in learning about different career paths can join the NYC Exploring program. It uses in-person & virtual weekly or bi-weekly after-school sessions to introduce students to a wide variety of careers. All are welcome to join the next medical/healthcare-focused session at Lenox Health in Manhattan on February 15. By opening the doors of businesses, non-profit organizations, and law enforcement agencies to young people, the program gives students first-hand information about what specific careers actually entail. This helps them sustain the motivation to achieve their goals.

Here's a quick list for your convenience of the programs we have scheduled:

- Lenox Health Greenwich Village (Healthcare) Thursdays at 4:30-6:00pm 2/15, 3/21, 4/18, 5/16

Icahn School of Medicine High School Summer Program

"At the Icahn Center for Excellence in Youth Education (CEYE), we help more than 200 students each year from grade seven through college prepare for careers in science and health care. As a unit of Mount Sinai Health System's Office for Diversity and Inclusion, CEYE operates a range of school-year and summer programs geared to youth belonging to groups that are low-income or underrepresented in medicine."

1 - Introduction to Bioinformatics Course is a course designed to teach high school students the basic concepts of cellular and molecular biology, genomic science, and computer programming.

2 - Medical and Scientific Exploration is an online course designed to guide students through different laboratories or clinical departments within the Mount Sinai Health System through the real world application of scientific concepts.

3 - The Internship Placement Programs are programs designed to expose rising seniors to various careers in the scientific and medical field. The Hospital Placement Program gives students exposure to health careers while enhancing their basic science knowledge and research skills. The Veterinary Sciences Program is designed to expose students to the veterinary sciences in a biomedical research environment.

The DR MMEN is a program designed to promote career advancement in the medical field for underrepresented communities.

Eligible: All students who identify as an underrepresented minority (African American, Latino, Native American, or Alaskan American) or meet low-income economic criteria.

For the DR MMEN program you must identify as an African American or Latino male and be a current junior.

Dates: July 1 – August 9

Location: Mostly virtual (Introduction to Bioinformatics & Medical and Scientific Exploration); In-person (All Internship Placement Programs)

Cost: Free

International Young Researchers' Conference Medicine and Research Summer Program

“The Medicine and Research Summer Program hosted by the Columbia University Vagelos College of Physician and Surgeons (VP&S) is a 9-week summer program featuring physicians, researchers, and medical students at Columbia University who teach about diverse topics of medicine. Students will learn how to take a patient history, interview several standardized patients, engage in ethical discussions, and study human anatomy. In addition, students will learn research methods for finding sources, analyzing data, and writing a manuscript. This summer features an additional Brain Intensive focused on Neurology, Neurosurgery, and Psychiatry where students will learn about anatomy, diagnoses, and patient experiences.”

Eligible: All students

Dates: June 8 - August 24 (10:30 AM - 1:00 PM EST)

Location: Virtual

Cost: $450 - $800 (depending on the deadline; financial aid available)

Deadline Approaching: Bright Lights Scholarship

“With its potential to open so many doors to the future, college should be accessible to everyone who wants it. Many students from low-income or first-generation households never consider college to be an attainable option. Regardless of one’s dreams, passions, or potential, college can feel impossible simply because of the cost.

This $550 scholarship aims to support students who have had to overcome obstacles to pursue a college education.”

Eligible: All students who identify as an underrepresented minority and/or first-generation

Application Deadline: February 15

Working Papers: Some summer jobs, internships, and programs do require students 14-17 years old to obtain working papers (official name: employment certificates). The necessary application form may be obtained from Mr. Myles Sebastien (who can explain the procedure and answer any questions) in the Stuyvesant Guidance Office (Room 236) between 8:00am – 3:30pm. Check the BUSINESS category for a link with more information.

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
