New: Help Refurbish & Donate Used Computers & Electronics

“Stuy Fixit is the NYC student-run chapter of the World Computer Exchange, which provides equipment to needy recipients around the world. Potential donors can donate computers and computer peripherals. Computers, mice, keyboards, external DVD drives, and external hard drives are frequently donated. Monitors can also make a great donation! We accept any type (CRT, flat-screen, etc). Our one requirement when it comes to computer donations is that the computer has a dual-core or higher-core-count CPU. If potential donors aren't sure about their computer's CPU core count, they can e-mail us at our e-mail (see below) to verify. Most computers manufactured from 2006 onward meet this requirement.

Donors help prevent electronic waste and also help someone in need. And all donations are tax-deductible!

All potential donors have to do to donate is send an e-mail to: (NYC@WorldComputerExchange.org) and we'll get back to them and arrange a pickup for the donated item.”

And Stuy students wishing to join the club can use the same email address to indicate their interest!

Rockefeller University Lab JumpStart Spring/Summer Program

“RockEDU’s LAB Jumpstart program supports 16 high school students attending NYC schools in a combined after-school and summer research experience. The 2022 LAB Jumpstart session will take place in person, and is specifically designed to promote the development of scientific thinking and research skills through a variety of talks, workshops, and individual mentorship.

The LAB Jumpstart program is recruiting students from under-resourced schools and communities. Those interested in applying to the LAB Jumpstart program must first be nominated. We welcome student nominations from any adult who has served in a formal or informal capacity as a teacher, counselor, mentor, employer, religious leader, community advocate, etc. for a prospective student applicant(s). We understand that our current pandemic context undoubtedly impacts a student’s network, and want to emphasize that nominations can come from any adult who can speak to your potential in this program.”

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students
