There are many highlights for this week. For example:

---In the EVENTS section, there are several upcoming Hackathons, such as the MakeSPP in-person event in Jersey City on April 1st and the virtual Biomedical Hackathon this weekend – both are open to all interested students. The New York Hall of Science’s Virtual STEM Night, with a focus on Public Health, is set for March 30th.

---In the BUSINESS category, the World of Money Road to Wall Street after-school event in Manhattan on Wednesday, March 29th is open to all. NYC Exploring offers a number of excellent upcoming after-school education/networking events in Medicine, Engineering, and Law to all students. And the Museum of Finance in lower Manhattan welcomes all students to their fast-approaching series of five financial education sessions

---There are numerous new opportunities in the ARTS and WRITING/PERFORMANCE categories – feel free to check them out ASAP!

---In the STEM/MEDICAL category, the STEM Matters offers free, in-person summer experiences to all students. The Tech 360 summer opportunity is open to current 10th and 11th graders. The Coding Camp for female students and the Goals for Girls (for 9th grade female students- deadline extended to March 31st) are options to consider. For students in 10th grade & above who live in Manhattan, Staten Island and the Bronx, there are Summer Health Internship Programs (SHIP) that provide an introduction to the healthcare field – the application deadline is April 3rd. And the MIT Cipher one-week summer session at their campus will focus on data cryptology; the focus is on under-represented & lower-income students, but all may apply.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

And, as always, students and parents should feel free to contact Harvey Blumm for advice & assistance: hblumm@stuy.edu
