For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Here are some highlights for this week:

In the BUSINESS section, BossGirls at City College in Manhattan offers all female-identifying students an excellent business/entrepreneurship summer program. For seniors, the Urban Leadership Fellows program provides a paid municipal finance internship to business-focused students (the application deadline is February 19th!). And for seniors with a strong academic record and real interest in Business/Finance/STEM, the Atlas Finance Fellowship is a very generous summer internship/scholarship program. It is focused on lower-income students & those from under-represented groups (including female students), but all may apply.

In the WRITING/PERFORMING ARTS section, the Young Dancemakers' Company welcomes audition applications from any current students for their summer season. And there are several new writing contests & programs to check out.

And in the STEM category, all students may apply for the free spring term weekend STEP programs at City Tech in Brooklyn and aeronautics-focused Vaughn College in Queens. Cooper Union in Manhattan has an excellent summer STEM program for 9th, 10th, and 11th graders – significant financial aid is available.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

And, as always, students and parents should feel free to contact Harvey Blumm for advice & assistance: hblumm@stuy.edu

New: Girls Write Now Writing 360 Workshops

1- Tell it Through Jokes: The Joys and Benefits of Stand-Up Comedy

“Scared of stand-up comedy? Never fear. It’s just another form of storytelling!

In this workshop, we will learn the basics of stand-up comedy writing, giving special attention to the ways stand-up can be a tool for activism and awareness around pertinent social issues. Participants will gain an understanding of thoughtful comedy writing, what not to do in stand-up, and how to intentionally engage audience members. We will also think through stand-up comedy’s capacity for wellness and processing, how the connection between audience members and comics creates a space for social-emotional learning.”

Eligible: All students who identify as women, trans, or gender-expansive

2- Co-creating Future: Augmented Reality As Crystal Ball

“How can the art of divination, or fortune-telling, guide us to rethink software as a system of healing, and how can we use software to develop healing tools? Inspired by the I Ching, an ancient text of Chinese wisdom and the world’s oldest oracle, artist and educator Zhenzhen Qi takes us through a variety of cultural divination practices to collectively design new or alternative patterns for fortune-telling. As a group, using the software development environment Lens Studio, we will code these patterns into a Snapchat AR filter to develop our own fortune-telling software experience. No prior software design or development experience is needed!”

New: Justice for All After –School Law program

“This 12-session elective, taught by federal judges and practicing lawyers, will expose students to a range of exciting and relevant legal topics, and will help students to develop their public speaking and advocacy skills through preparation for a moot court competition. The elective will be held on Wednesdays from 5:00 p.m.—6:15 p.m. at the Thurgood Marshall U.S. Courthouse (40 Foley Square) in downtown Manhattan, beginning on March 1. One session will include a field trip to a law firm. Family members are invited to attend the final session on Wednesday, May 24 at the federal courthouse to watch the students participate in a moot court competition.

A sampling of topics that will be covered throughout the elective include: the First Amendment and student speech, the Fifth Amendment and student privacy, the Constitution and national security, and improving fairness in the criminal justice system.

Students will have the opportunity to meet and speak with federal judges and practicing lawyers during the sessions and learn about careers in the law.”

Students who are interested in participating should email Alana Chill at:

National Labor Relations Board Student Ambassador Program

“The National Labor Relations Board is a federal agency that enforces the National Labor Relations Act. Through the NLRB’s Student Ambassador Program, students will get to engage with NLRB attorneys and investigators, and will learn about the rights of workers and the responsibilities of employers and unions. Students will complete a learning phase and then students will get the opportunity to create a public facing project that the NLRB will help shape and promote. Each student will be assigned an attorney or investigator as a mentor for the public facing project.”

Examples of a public facing project can be an article in a student or local newspaper or a presentation with an NLRB representative in a class or conference. This Program is a wonderful opportunity for students to develop familiarity with the law, law enforcement, and federal agencies. Equally as important, students will get the chance to create a project centered on what they have learned. They will develop their project skills, use their creativity, and step forward as leaders. At the end of the Program, they will receive a Certificate of Accomplishment.”

First Deadline Approaching: Girls Who Code Summer Programs

“Girls Who Code offers two summer programs: the Summer Immersion Program and the Self-Paced Program. The Summer Immersion Program (SIP) is a 2-week introductory computer science course during which participants learn web development with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript while getting an inside look into the tech industry through incredible company partners. The Self-Paced Program is a 6-week flexible computer science course in which participants can choose to earn beginner-level badges in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript for web development or an intermediate-level badge in Python for cybersecurity.”

Eligible: All students 14 and older who identify as girls or non-binary

Dates: Various

Location: Virtual

Cost: Free (grants and tech support available)

Application Deadline: February 15 (Early Deadline) & March 24 (Regular Deadline)

Event Approaching: HackNYU Hacking & Volunteering Opportunity

“HackNYU is a global hackathon that focuses on building products that impact diverse communities. Students of any age can sign up to join as a hacker at HackNYU and win prizes, no experience is required. Students may also volunteer to set up, take down, aid in workshops, distribute merchandise, help with sign-in, and distribute food. All volunteers receive swag and food as thanks for helping.”

Eligible: Volunteers: All students who are at least 17 years old;

Hackers : All students of any age

Dates: February 18 - 19

Location: In-Person at NYU Tandon in Brooklyn

Cost: Free

Application Deadline: Rolling Basis

Event Approaching: Math Gym at the Museum of Mathematics

“Students will spend an hour independently working on engaging and beautiful math problems, hand-selected by MoMath’s advisory council of math PhDs. Choose whichever challenges you like and explore them with the guidance and mentorship of an expert mathematician. If you love math and want to experience the incredible joy of mathematical discovery, you won’t want to miss this enjoyable monthly program.”

Eligible: All students

Dates: February 22, March 22, and once a month on a Wednesday subsequently

Location: Virtual

Cost: Free

Application Deadline: Rolling Basis

Deadline Approaching: STEM Center SHINE Engineering Summer Programs

“USC Viterbi School of Engineering’s Summer High School Intensive in Next-Generation Engineering (SHINE) offers students the chance to join a USC Viterbi research team for seven weeks to discover how engineering addresses our real-world problems in various fields, including biomedicine, robotics, aerospace, and more. Each student works with an assigned professor and a mentor dedicated to training them in experimental lab work or computational research. Each student works on authentic, immersive lab projects within their choice of innovative research.’

Eligible: Freshmen, sophomores, juniors

Dates: July 12 – July 28

Location: TBD: If in-person, on the USC campus

Cost: $35 application fee, fee waivers available (apply by 2/28/2023)

$5,750 paid in 1-3 installments or full amount, scholarships available for low-income students

The Yale Summer Program in Astrophysics (YSPA)

YSPA is a research program in which students spend two weeks virtually learning skills in astronomy and programming. Then, they are invited to the Yale campus for four weeks to develop a complex astrophysics modeling project. Students gain skills in physics, math, astronomy, programming, data visualization, and data science.

Members of underrepresented groups in STEM are encouraged to apply

Eligible: Current juniors

Dates: June 26 – July 7 (online) & July 9 – August 6 (residential)

Location: Hybrid (two weeks virtual & four weeks residential on the Yale campus)

Cost: $6,900 (excludes transportation fees; need-based financial aid available)

The Jane Street Academy Unboxed Program

“An invigorating three-week hybrid program, the first two weeks of UNBOXED are virtual, culminating with a final week in-person at our office. Students will take group classes online and dive into topics like statistics, probability, programming, and analytical problem-solving. Students will connect with Jane Street traders, researchers, software engineers, and business development analysts to focus on a particular subject matter. This may mean translating the foundations of mathematics to the financial markets, coding in OCaml, or analyzing business case studies. There is no background in finance or STEM required to participate in UNBOXED. All attendees of UNBOXED will be given a $2,000 scholarship to put toward future educational opportunities, in addition to other perks.”

Eligible: Current Seniors who identify with historically underrepresented ethnic or racial groups

Dates: July 10 - 28

Location: Hybrid; In-person at 250 Vesey Street, Manhattan

Cost: Free

Application Deadline: March 14

2- Co-creating Future: Augmented Reality As Crystal Ball

“How can the art of divination, or fortune-telling, guide us to rethink software as a system of healing, and how can we use software to develop healing tools? Inspired by the I Ching, an ancient text of Chinese wisdom and the world’s oldest oracle, artist and educator Zhenzhen Qi takes us through a variety of cultural divination practices to collectively design new or alternative patterns for fortune-telling. As a group, using the software development environment Lens Studio, we will code these patterns into a Snapchat AR filter to develop our own fortune-telling software experience. No prior software design or development experience is needed!”

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
