This weekly bulletin informs students, parents, and staff about internships, academic programs, jobs, leadership & community service initiatives, and other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

These various opportunities utilize different formats. Some are in-person, some remote, and some will involve a hybrid arrangement. Check each program for their specific format and schedule. Students should consider applying to any that match their interests and talents. Some program deadlines are fast approaching – please do not miss them!

Some highlighted programs in the categories below (often with approaching deadlines) include:

ACADEMICS: The CUNY College Now Program at campuses throughout the city offers free college-level science, math, & humanities classes to current juniors & seniors (sophomores may be eligible for some programs). The application deadlines and course times vary for each individual campus - students should explore their options.

BUSINESS: The Emma Bowen Summer Internship for seniors is a paid program for groups (including Asian-Americans) under-represented in media corporations. There is an upcoming Information Session on 10/29.

And the NYC Exploring organization welcomes students from all grades to their after-school visits to leading engineering, financial, medical, legal and other companies. These are free opportunities to meet professionals in a variety of fields.

GOVERNMENT/LEADERSHIP: The Bill of Rights Institute is a year-long program for juniors & seniors interested in the role of government, leadership in civil society, along with other current public policy issues.

MUSEUMS/ART: The Guggenheim Museum welcomes all students to their upcoming free sketching and other art workshops – the next session is on October 20th!

PARKS/NATURE: The Brooklyn Botanic Garden's Garden Apprentice Program is open to current 9th, 10th, and 11th grade students with an interest in urban agriculture, plants, and the environment. It takes place during the spring term, and can lead to paid positions. There is an information session set for 10/26.

STEM: The International Young Researchers Conference is a low-cost six-week virtual program that introduces students from all grades to research concepts in biology, chemistry, and other scientific fields.

WRITING/THEATER: There are several new writing contests (open to all) in this week's edition, including the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards, the Girls Write Now Inspiring Women program, and Princeton's Milberg High School Poetry Prize.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

Events of Interest to Students:

New: Event Approaching: Chat with a Scientist: Defining Inclusion in STEM

"Inclusion, in its broadest sense, refers to the practice of ensuring that all individuals are respected, valued, and supported within a community or society, regardless of their differences. But what does inclusion look like in the context of STEM fields? What are some barriers to inclusion in STEM? Explore the answers to these questions and learn more at the first session of our ‘Inclusion in STEM’ series, featuring Alfred M. Mays, Chief Diversity Officer and Senior Program Officer for Diversity and Education at the Burroughs Wellcome Fund.”

Working Papers: Some jobs, internships, and programs do require students 14-17 years old to obtain working papers (official name: employment certificates). The necessary application form may be obtained from Mr. Myles Sebastien (who can explain the procedure and answer any questions) in the Stuyvesant Guidance Office (Room 236) between 8:00am – 3:30pm.

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
