

New: Deadline Approaching:

Any Stuyvesant students who are still seeking meaningful summer programs should apply for the NYC sponsored SYEP Summer Bridge Program, which offers paid, part-time career exploration activities & projects. Selection is by lottery, and the application deadline is Wednesday, July 15.

Here are the necessary details and application information:

Revised NYC Summer Youth Virtual Paid Employment Program

All NYC high school students who are legally allowed to work in the U.S. are eligible for the new, virtual version of this SYEP Summer Bridge paid youth employment program. Participants will participate in a paid project-based learning experience, along with career exploration, work-readiness training, leadership projects and skills development. They will have the opportunity to engage with employers and build a career network through mentoring, career panels, social media workshops, and more. Participants will work 18 hours per week for five weeks, and will earn between $700 - $1,000 for the summer.

Students who have already applied to SYEP earlier in the spring must log into their existing accounts and select a provider & register for this new model by Wednesday, July 15. Students applying for the first time must complete and submit their applications by July 15.

Eligible: All students 14 and older who are legally allowed to work in the U.S.
Selection will be by lottery.

Dates: Five weeks in July and August (18 hours of work per week)

Application Deadline: July 15
