10. CONTESTS & COMPETITIONS

11. OPPORTUNITY LISTS AND RESOURCES

12. SCHOLARSHIPS

For students still seeking summer opportunities, Community Service is one area in which a substantial number of options remain available. Check that section to consider, for example, helping senior citizens (as in the Visions & Visiting Neighbors items), assisting hungry New Yorkers (i.e., with the St. John's Food Pantry in Brooklyn or the Youth Food Advocates program), or perhaps enjoying the summer outdoors by working with one of the many NYC Park programs available in the PARKS/NATURE section.

Some other highlights from this week's edition:

--In the ACADEMICS section, the National History Academy offers virtual & residential four-week programs for interested students. And there are new listings for free fall term CUNY College Now classes

--In the LEADERSHIP/GOVERNMENT category, there are several free College-Readiness/SAT Prep programs for various grade levels. Let's Get Ready (for current 10th & 11th graders), RNH Summer Bridge (for current juniors), and the TGR Foundation's College Bound Academy (for current juniors)

--And in the-WRITING-MUSIC section, Girls Write Now has opened registration for its 2022-2023 school-year program. They also have an upcoming virtual Open House event on June 21st, and several Journalism-focused options.

Please apply to whichever programs fit your interests & talents ASAP! All students and parents are always welcome to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu for advice & assistance.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business & Jobs, Community Service, and so on.

New items always will be listed first in every category, followed by those with approaching deadlines (Deadline Approaching).

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

New: EVERFI Free Online Classes & Scholarships

“Stuy students may register for a variety of College/Career Readiness, STEM, and other free online courses before June 30th.

Do so by entering the code that connects them to Stuyvesant High School to access courses by June 30. That code is 859f3288

Once students are on their dashboard, they will see around a half dozen of our core high school courses available, including Keys to Your Future and Data Science Foundations. They can click START on each of the courses in their account to take a look and explore however they'd like. Completing an entire course (and passing each quiz with a score of 70 or above) will earn them a course certification that they can use for their resume and college applications.

Scholarships

EVERFI: Financial Literacy has a $2,000 scholarship opportunity attached for students who complete Lesson 2 (Employment & Taxes) between now and June 30. No application necessary.

The second scholarship is through one of our sponsors, Citizens Bank, for a \$2,500 award, with the possibility of winning the $15,000 grand prize. All students have to do is fill out the application on the website.

Eligible: All students

Dates: Available until June 30

New: Visiting Neighbors Volunteer Program

“With a friendly visit, seniors enjoy a few hours of a company each week, offering both the senior and volunteer an opportunity to learn from one another. Each visit is as unique as the two individuals involved. Seniors and volunteers share memories and warm conversation; they may listen to music together, watch a favorite movie or enjoy a hobby or a game of cards. Volunteers benefit from learning about an older person's life experiences, and seniors enjoy an opportunity to share their views with younger generations and stay connected with the outside world.

You can also escort a senior. If you have a special skill, such as graphics or writing, we can always use your help. We also need help with special projects, such as volunteer "elves" to deliver holiday gifts, or to help in the office, or with fundraising activities.”

Eligible: All students who are at least 15 years old

Dates: Various

Location: 3 Washington Square Village, Manhattan, and Various addresses

“Students are invited to read “The Precipice” on existential risks for mankind and consider the following prompt: Pick a transformative technology you think will be created someday. Imagine that you are in a position of responsibility for it. For example, you could be a scientist developing this technology, a government official regulating it, or a corporate executive selling it to the public. How would you approach your job to have the greatest chance of preserving humanity’s potential? What are the risks you face? The top prize is $15,000.”

Eligible: All students who are at least 13 years old

Application Deadline: June 15

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students
