This weekly bulletin informs students, parents, and staff about internships, academic programs, jobs, community service options, and leadership initiatives, along with other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.

Some program deadlines are fast approaching – please do not miss them!

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

There are many excellent opportunities in this issue - including several highlighted below. A good number of programs & contests have upcoming deadlines at the end of December or in early January!

EVENTS: Girls Write Now invites all students to its virtual ‘World of Food Writing’ event on January 5th.

BUSINESS/JOBS: The Atlas Fellows Scholarship/Internship offers generous awards & paid summer internships for lower-income, under-represented seniors with a strong interest in finance and business.

LEADERSHIP: The Justice for All series of 12 free after-school in-person sessions introduces students to judges, lawyers, & legal experts to discuss a variety of legal topics. Also in the legal field, the Sonia Sotomayor and Thurgood Marshall internship programs (for older students) offer free summer introductions to many aspects of the legal profession. And the Camp Rising Sun free four-week program in upstate New York allows 15-16 year-old students (check the specified age requirements) to engage in leadership development with peer students from around the world.

ART & WRITING SECTIONS: There are a number of excellent programs and contests with fast-approaching deadlines for our very creative students. For example, both the Museum of Arts and Design & the Center for Architecture offer one-week programs during the February break, and the SONY Photography Contest's deadline is in early January. For writers, numerous contests have upcoming deadlines, and programs such as Writopia and Uptown Stories (among others) welcome interested students.

STEM: Several new medical/biology programs are now accepting applications. The Perry Initiative in-person Saturday in March event at the Einstein College of Medicine is open to all 10th grade & older female & nonbinary students. The HOPP program in cancer research at Memorial Sloan Kettering Hospital welcomes applications from all grades. And Columbia's Irving Center for Cancer Research offers two summer programs for students from lower-income or under-represented backgrounds.

New: Deadline Approaching:

Sparks Within Reach Spring Term Education Internship

“We are currently seeking high school students to become volunteer tutors at P.S. 188 (The Island School), a K-8 public school on the Lower East Side of Manhattan. Many of the students at P.S. 188 are low-income, facing housing insecurity, or otherwise at-risk. Tutors will have the opportunity to make a real impact with these students by providing them with one-on-one academic and social-emotional support during the P.S. 188 afterschool program.

We are looking for compassionate, dedicated 9th-12th grade students to join our team at P.S. 188 and help us make a difference in students' lives!

Please note that no experience is required, as all instructors will be trained in tutoring methods, social-emotional learning, and trauma-informed teaching. Interested students may reach out to contact@sparkswithinreach.org with any questions.”

Parks/Nature:

Inspiring Girls* Summer Expeditions

“Inspiring Girls* Expeditions is a tuition-FREE, 12-day wilderness science education program for interested students. The aim of this program is to provide each participant with a unique opportunity to move beyond their comfort zone through field-based science research projects, wilderness exploration, and nature-based art. We want to connect with participants ready to explore their own curiosity, creativity, and courage. Supportive, experienced, and knowledgeable guides and scientists will lead participants in mountaineering, kayaking or packrafting in Alaska, or rock climbing in Colorado. Please note that travel outside of the USA is not required to participate in this program.”

Rockefeller University RockEDU Science Outreach Programs

“RockEDU Science Outreach is hosting a program combined into an after-school and summer research experience. The LAB Jumpstart Program takes place across two phases. The first phase is the LAB Jumpstart Program which will take place after school in the Spring term and the second phase is the Summer Science Research Program (SSRP) which will take place during the summer. The program is designed to promote the development of scientific thinking and research skills through a variety of talks, workshops, and individual mentorship.”

1 – Rockefeller University LAB Jumpstart Program

“LAB Jumpstart is designed to provide high school students, from disadvantaged backgrounds, with an opportunity to conduct hands-on research under the mentorship of leading scientific researchers at one of the world's premier biomedical research facilities. Students will be encouraged to develop and ask questions pertaining to scientific research, gain exposure to research skills and primary literature, and connect with dedicated scientist-mentors at The Rockefeller University. Each student is paired with a LAB Jumpstart Advocate — a practicing scientist who can provide educational and professional support beyond academic courses and discussions.”

Eligible: Current juniors and seniors who are at least 16 years old (by start of program); those with limited access to STEM opportunities are encouraged to apply

Dates: February 29 – June 13 (Tuesdays & Thursdays, 4:30 - 7:00 PM)

Location: The Rockefeller University (1230 York Avenue, Manhattan)

Cost: Free

2 – Rockefeller University Summer Science Research Program (SSRP)

“Students accepted into the SSRP mentored bioresearch program will participate in their own research project as part of a themed research track (i.e. RNA bioinformatics or fly behavior). Each track will consist of 8-12 SSRP students led by a RockEDU Fellow and their facilitation team of Track Scientists. RockEDU Fellows and Track Scientists are members of the Rockefeller scientific community who will guide students through their research projects through foundational lectures and skills-building activities.

Students will also attend a weekly suite of core lectures, which include talks from Rockefeller scientists and discussions of the styles of scientific reasoning, ethical practices in science, careers in science, and other topics.” The program includes a MetroCard for transportation and applications for stipends.

Eligible: Current juniors and seniors who are at least 16 years old at program start

Dates: June 24 – August 8, 2024 (35 hours/week)

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
