Stuyvesant Student Opportunity Bulletin #36L

June 2, 2023

Please note that in this "Long" version of the Student Opportunity Bulletin, all opportunities in each category are included.

For the list of only the New and Deadline Approaching opportunities in each category, you may click & open the "Short" version of the Student Opportunity document you received.

CATEGORY TABLE OF CONTENTS:
(Download this entire PDF document in order to use the following links to jump to your area(s) of interest)

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Some highlights for this week:

---In the ACADEMICS section, BMCC (the Borough of Manhattan Community College, across the street from Stuyvesant) is offering two free opportunities for Stuy students. Their summer STEM-focused STEP program is open to all students from lower-income or under-represented groups, and they also offer two fall term college-level Music classes (this deadline is June 13th!). And many private university's precollege summer classes (which charge tuition but often offer some financial aid) have upcoming deadlines in the next week or two.

--In the LEADERSHIP/GOVERNMENT category, note that our dedicated Parents' and Alumni Associations are joining to offer a new virtual college-readiness prep program exclusively for Stuy students. This series of free online sessions over the summer with expert consultants will cover most college admissions topics – it's open to all students!

--In the COMMUNITY SERVICE category, the historic ship Lilac is moored on the Hudson River, two blocks north of Stuyvesant, and it welcomes student volunteers to help (part or full time) with a variety of tasks. And the Stephy Street non-profit is seeking 10th graders and older to assist autistic & disabled children at two Manhattan locations.

--In the STEM section, the virtual Junior Academy research/STEM program connects high schoolers with research scientists from around the world; its application deadline is June 30th. PIER from the University of Pittsburgh is a free, online program in July that covers research & practice innovations in the Pharmacy/drug field; it is open to all students. And in the area of Computer Science, the online High School Terminal Coding Event on June 23rd is open to all students – no prior special experience needed!

--In the THEATER/WRITING section, the free Young Playwrights summer program is open to current 9th, 10th, and 11th graders –the application deadline is June 6th! The 10-day CLARIFY journalism program from City Limits is open to 10th, 11th, and 12th graders; participants work with professionals in developing their own stories. And ReelWorks is a free three-week video/film program in Brooklyn, targeted for under-represented groups, but all may apply.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community! And, as always, students and parents should feel free to contact Harvey Blumm for advice & assistance.

StandOut Search - Direct Connect High School Internship Program

"StandOut Connect is a program founded at The University of Chicago that matches high school students with paid internships. Most high school students find internships through personal connections, but not everyone has a family friend in a field that interests them. That's why we created a program that matches high school students with companies founded by top university alumni that have previously only accepted high school interns from within their personal network. Now, instead of applying to competitive state programs, you can connect directly with unique companies in fields that excite you."

Visiting Neighbors Volunteer Program

"With a friendly visit, seniors enjoy a few hours of a company each week, offering both the senior and volunteer an opportunity to learn from one another. Each visit is as unique as the two individuals involved. Seniors and volunteers share memories and warm conversation; they may listen to music together, watch a favorite movie or enjoy a hobby or a game of cards. Volunteers benefit from learning about an older person's life experiences, and seniors enjoy an opportunity to share their views with younger generations and stay connected with the outside world. You can also escort a senior. If you have a special skill, such as graphics or writing, we can always use your help. We also need help with special projects, such as volunteer "elves" to deliver holiday gifts, or to help in the office, or with fundraising activities."

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
