Event Approaching:

New: Girls Write Now: Photopoetry: A Synthesis of Photography and Poetry

“Curious about what Photopoetry is? At first glance, poetry and photography might seem like completely different mediums—one deals with the written word, the other deals with visual impressions. Yet, both forms are artistic expressions that have a lot more in common than one may think. Applying the lessons learned from this workshop, participants will use their smartphones, computers, and imagination to create a photograph in response to a poem—and in so doing, create a photopoem of their own!”

Eligible: All female-identifying, trans, and gender-expansive students

Date: November 19 (3 – 5 pm)

Location: Virtual

Cost: Free

Application Deadline: Rolling Basis

Postcard Poetry: A High School Writing Workshop for Climate Action

“Calling all high school poet-activists! Join us for a session of poetry writing and climate action as we counter political apathy with poetry! Through a poetry-writing exercise inspired by artist David Opdyke’s work, we will address postcards to our elected representatives that we will fill with poetry communicating, in human terms, the urgency of action on climate change. After the conclusion of the program, these postcards will be mailed, and we hope to inundate our elected leaders with poetry! Participants will produce as many postcard poems as time allows, learn about the climate crisis and how the visual and literary arts can meaningfully engage the crisis, meet the artist, and take part in this direct-action campaign.”

Eligible: All students

Date: November 12 (4:00 – 5:30 pm)

Location: 120-C Wooster Street, Manhattan

Museums, Art, Photography:

New: Event Approaching: Photopoetry: A Synthesis of Photography and Poetry

“Curious about what Photopoetry is? At first glance, poetry and photography might seem like completely different mediums—one deals with the written word, the other deals with visual impressions. Yet, both forms are artistic expressions that have a lot more in common than one may think. Applying the lessons learned from this workshop, participants will use their smartphones, computers, and imagination to create a photograph in response to a poem—and in so doing, create a photopoem of their own!”

Deadline Approaching: The James Alan Cox Foundation for Student Photojournalists Scholarship

“The focus of the work and entries is photojournalism, and students whose work ‘tells a story’ will be awarded. One suggestion for the subject matter is the current crisis our world is facing: COVID-19. Five (5) Digital SLR Cameras will be awarded to five (5) high school students, who should only submit still photographs.”

Eligible: Current sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have taken at least one photography or related art class

Application Deadline: November 15

Deadline Approaching: Jack Kent Cooke Scholarship

The Cooke College Scholarship Program is awarded high-achieving high school seniors with financial need who seek to attend and graduate from highly competitive four-year colleges and universities in the US. Each award is intended to cover a significant share of the student’s educational experience – including tuition, living expenses, books and required fees. Awards vary by individual.

Scholarship applications are submitted through the Common App.

Eligible: Current Seniors

Application Deadline: November 17

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
