This weekly bulletin informs students, parents, and staff about internships, academic programs, jobs, community service options, and leadership initiatives, along with other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator

Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

Students still seeking summer opportunities should select and apply ASAP to any of the many opportunities in the various categories listed below (some free or low-cost) – community service options, for example, can be part-time or full-time, tutoring/helping younger students, working in parks, volunteering with local government officials, and more. At this point students should consider any options that they might find interesting or enjoyable. Feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu for assistance & suggestions.

And a good number of programs for the fall term are now posting applications, such as free CUNY College Now classes and the virtual NY Academy of Science's Junior Academy STEM Mentorship program. Some deadlines are due in the next few weeks, so check them out!

Some interesting programs to consider are highlighted below:

ACADEMICS: Some of the free CUNY College Now courses offered at campuses around the city are still accepting applications, check the link in this section to learn more.

BUSINESS: Free resume/networking assistance sessions with Salesforce Corporation professionals are scheduled for next week – all students may apply to participate. And the Jane Street Company's free programs for female, transgender, and gender-expansive students are also approaching.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: The Visions Inter-Generational program allows students 15 and older to help visually impaired/blind New Yorkers, either through home visits (with other teens), or at their centers.

Several other new service programs, ranging from assisting food programs to helping younger children, are also listed.

GOVERNMENT/LEADERSHIP: The Chinatown Youth Initiative's Summer Leadership Institute is a Saturday cultural identity program for APIA students with an interest in personal and community development.

MUSEUMS/ART: The Garibaldi-Meucci Museum in Staten Island offers a low-cost four-Wednesday art class for students in July.

New: Visiting Neighbors Volunteer Program

“With a friendly visit, seniors enjoy a few hours of a company each week, offering both the senior and volunteer an opportunity to learn from one another. Each visit is as unique as the two individuals involved. Seniors and volunteers share memories and warm conversation; they may listen to music together, watch a favorite movie or enjoy a hobby or a game of cards. Volunteers benefit from learning about an older person's life experiences, and seniors enjoy an opportunity to share their views with younger generations and stay connected with the outside world. You can also escort a senior. If you have a special skill, such as graphics or writing, we can always use your help. We also need help with special projects, such as volunteer "elves" to deliver holiday gifts, or to help in the office, or with fundraising activities.”

Deadline Approaching: Eon Essay Contest on “The Precipice”

“Students are invited to read “The Precipice” on existential risks for mankind and consider the following prompt: Pick a transformative technology you think will be created someday. Imagine that you are in a position of responsibility for it. For example, you could be a scientist developing this technology, a government official regulating it, or a corporate executive selling it to the public. How would you approach your job to have the greatest chance of preserving humanity’s potential? What are the risks you face? The top prize is $15,000.”

Eligible: All students

Application Deadline: June 15

Resume & cover letter templates for basic student resumes may be accessed at the following links:

<http://jobsearch.about.com/od/resumesandcoverletters/l/blhighschool2.htm>

<http://jobsearch.about.com/od/resumetemplates/a/templatehs.htm>

Working Papers: Some summer jobs, internships, and programs do require students 14-17 years old to obtain working papers (official name: employment certificates).

The necessary application form may be obtained from Mr. Myles Sebastien (who can explain the procedure and answer any questions) in the Stuyvesant Guidance Office (Room 236) between 8:00am – 3:30pm. Check the BUSINESS category for a link with more information.

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
